INTRODUCTION

Families of the Last Frontier (“FLF”) is an Independent Expenditures group who has raised funds intended to influence the 2024 election and “elect conservatives to public office.”¹ In September 2024, FLF received two large contributions from out-of-state political action committees (“PACs”). These contributions are subject to Alaska’s “true source” disclosure requirements because “a person or legal entity who derived funds via contributions, donations, dues, or gifts is not the true source, but rather an intermediary for the true source.”² Groups and contributors have worked hard to comply with the new rules for true source disclosure, with near universal compliance. However, FLF is the exception to this rule.

FLF violated AS 15.13’s disclosure and communication requirements for its three largest contributions. FLF failed to fully disclose the “true sources” of its top two contributions received from out-of-state PACs. FLF also did not properly disclose its third largest contribution received from a sole proprietorship. In addition to these disclosure failures, FLF did not state its top contributor and that the majority of its funding came from out-of-state PACs in its “paid for by” on a mailer sent to voters earlier this month. Such across-the-board compliance failure creates an unfair advantage for FLF relative to other regulated parties. FLF’s conduct also produces inaccurate and unequal public information as the election nears. To remedy these violations, 907 Initiative files the following administrative complaint and requests expedited consideration.

² AS 15.13.400(19).

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Republican State Leadership Committee Contribution

1. On July 6, 2024, the Republican State Leadership Committee (“RSLC”), a PAC residing in Washington, D.C., contributed $25,000.00 to FLF.³
2. On September 19, 2024, RSLC contributed $125,000.00 by electronic funds transfer to FLF. See Exhibit 1.
3. On September 20, 2024, the RSLC submitted a Statement of Contributions Report. See Exhibit 1. Appended to that report was a list of donors, listing the donors’ names, addresses, the date of their true source contribution, and the amount of their contribution to the RSLC.⁴ See Exhibit 1.
4. On September 25, 2024, FLF reported this contribution on a Twenty-Four Hour True Sources Report. Appended to that report, however, was only a list of the names and dates of the donors to the RLSC. The list did not include the amount of the individual donors contributions.⁵ See Exhibit 2.
5. In total, RSLC has contributed $150,000.00 to FLF this cycle and is one of FLF’s two top contributors.

B. GOPAC Contribution

1. On September 23, 2024, GOPAC Election Fund contributed to FLF

⁴ Due to the size of the disclosure, 907 Initiative directs the Commission to download the “full list of True Sources” available for download or by request of staff as stated here: <https://aws.state.ak.us/ApocReports/Common/View.aspx?ID=5168&ViewType=SC>

⁵ Similar to the above footnote, the full CSV can be downloaded here: <https://aws.state.ak.us/ApocReports/Common/View.aspx?ID=44910&ViewType=CD>

$150,000.00. See Exhibit 3. GOPAC is FLF's other top contributor this cycle.

2. That same day, GOPAC Election Fund submitted a Statement of Contributions, which reported the $150,000.00 contribution to Families of the Last Frontier. See Exhibit 3.

3. GOPAC's Statement of Contributions reported that GOPAC is a "FEDERAL POLITICAL ACTION COMMITTEE," based out of Arlington, Virginia. See Exhibit 3.

4. GOPAC's Statement of Contributions stated that the $150,000.00 was "Received Directly from True Source. No Intermediaries." See Exhibit 3.

5. GOPAC's Statement of Contributions therefore included no True Source Reporting Disclosures. See Exhibit 3.

6. FLF submitted an incomplete Twenty-Four Hour True Source Report in apparent reliance on this representation that GOPAC is the true source of its $150,000.00 contribution. The Twenty-Four Hour Report stated: "Contributor is True Source." See Exhibit 4.

C. Arctic E&P Advisors

1. FLF received a $22,000.00 contribution from "Arctic E&P Advisors" on September 26, 2024. See Exhibit 5.

2. Arctic E&P Advisors appears to be a sole proprietorship without a valid business license. See Exhibit 6; 7.

3. FLF filed an Independent Expenditures Report on September 26, 2024, reporting the contribution as from Arctic E&P Advisors, and listing "Randolph Ruedrich" as the owner of the Contributor organization. See Exhibit 5.

4. The sole proprietor of Arctic E&P Advisors appears to be the Treasurer of FLF, Randy Ruedrich. See Exhibit 6;7.

D. Contributors Listed in “Paid For By”

1. On or around October 15, 2024, FLF distributed a mailer in support of David Nelson for State House. See Exhibit 8.

2. The mailer included a paid for by but only listed FLF’s top two contributors, RSLC and Arctic E&P Advisors. See Exhibit 8.

3. The GOPAC Contribution was received and reported on September 23, 2024. See Exhibit 8.

4. Therefore, GOPAC was a contributor to FLF at the time FLF sent the communication but FLF did not list GOPAC as its top contributor, let alone a contributor, in the required paid for by on the mailer. See Exhibit 8.

5. Not only did FLF fail to identify GOPAC as its largest contributor, FLF failed to include a disclaimer that the majority of its funds came from out of state organizations. See Exhibit 8.

ARGUMENT

A. The Commission should grant expedited consideration because FLF has failed to comply with clear disclosure rules, which materially affects the information available to the public and irreparably harms other regulated parties.

Expedited consideration is necessary when “the alleged violation, if not immediately restrained, could materially affect the outcome of an election . . . whether the alleged violation could cause irreparable harm that penalties could not adequately remedy and whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a violation has occurred or will occur.”⁶

The Commission should grant expedited consideration because remediating these violations of true source disclosure is essential to providing the public full information before voting starts. The election is on November 5, 2024, and each day that passes diminishes the information available to the public regarding who is influencing Alaska’s elections. Disregarding true source reporting for the vast majority of FLF’s funds raised to date casts a shadow on all the electoral activity funded by those contributions. Without action by APOC, voters are kept in the dark. And for at least one of the violations below, FLF is actively omitting information that AS 15.13.090 requires in the paid for by statements on print political communications.

Further, other regulated parties suffer irreparable harm until APOC clarifies the scope of true source reporting requirements. If FLF’s reporting is compliant with AS 15.13, other parties should know. FLF’s conduct diverges from the established understanding of true source reporting’s requirements. Complying with the requirements is time-intensive and all regulated parties should operate under the same set rules. As APOC recognized in its recent advisory opinion, consistent advice to regulated parties is essential in the waning days of an election.⁷ To level the playing field, APOC must respond quickly so that either: (a) the public learns of the true sources behind FLF's contributions, or (b) other regulated parties understand what true source reporting requires and adapt their behavior accordingly.

⁷ See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 24-04 (delaying the effective date of new guidance to avoid inconsistent advice to regulated parties).

B. FLF failed to report the full true source information for the RSLC contribution.

Under AS 15.43.110(k) an entity making independent expenditures in a candidate election that receives a contribution that exceeds $2,000 dollars in a single year "shall report that contribution, and all subsequent contributions, not later than 24 hours after receipt." 2 AAC 50.270 requires that the report under AS 15.13.110(k) include:

The report must include a certification that all true sources and intermediaries have been disclosed and the following information: (1) the date of each contribution; (2) the amount of each contribution; (3) the full name of the contributor; (4) a description of item or services contributed, if necessary; and (5) the full name of all intermediaries, if any, within the meaning of "true source under AS 15.13.400."

FLF violated this provision by failing to include the amount of each contribution.

The list of contributors attached to FLF's 24-hour report only includes the names and dates of the contributors. The amount of the contribution appears to be redacted. To date, other groups have reported true source requirements and included the amount of each contribution – a requirement established in AO 21-01.⁸

C. Neither FLF nor GOPAC reported the true sources behind GOPAC's $150,000.00 contribution.

GOPAC self-reported that it is a federal political action committee. A federal political action committee exists to receive contributions from individuals, corporations, unions, and other PACs to finance independent expenditures and other political activity.⁹ A federal political action committee therefore must report the true source of its individual contributions under AS 15.13.400(19).

⁸ See AO 21-01 at 4. <https://aws.state.ak.us/ApocReports/Paper/Download.aspx?ID=22699>.

GOPAC is a federal PAC and not the true source of its contribution to FLF. AS 15.13.400(19) establishes in plain and unequivocal terms: “a person or legal entity who derived funds via contributions, donations, dues, or gifts is not the true source, but rather an intermediary for the true source.” GOPAC derives its funds through contributions and therefore cannot be the true source of its $150,000.00 contribution. Moreover, FLF’s reliance on GOPAC’s representation conflicts with FLF’s attempted true source reporting for the RSLC contribution. RSLC also self-reported that it is a “FEDERAL PAC.” The discrepancy in FLF’s reporting across contributions reveals the unfair advantage that FLF obtained. A group cannot pick and choose when to comply with true source reporting. The public’s right to know applies to all contributions from intermediaries.

D. FLF include a complete paid for by statement required on all political communications.

FLF distributed a political communication almost a month after the GOPAC contribution was received without identifying GOPAC in the required paid for by statement. Alaska Statute 15.13.090 states that a print communication must list the three largest contributors toward the group.¹⁰ This is not an ambiguous requirement; AS 15.13.090 gives the exact language that must appear. A print communication must state in a clear and discernible manner:

⁹ 26 U.S.C. § 527(e)(1); see also AO-23-03 (describing a Hybrid PAC structure); <https://www.fec.gov/press/resources-journalists/political-action-committees-pacs/>

This communication was paid for by (person's name and city and state of principal place of business). The top contributors of (person's name) are (the name and city and state of residence or principal place of business, as applicable, of the largest contributors to the person under AS 15.13.090(a)(2)(C)).¹¹

And APOC has stressed in Advisory Opinion 17-03 that the unambiguous paid for by requirement in AS 15.13.090, indeed, applies to "all communications."¹²

Despite this clear instruction FLF did not include a compliant paid for by in its political communications. Exhibit 8 evidences that failure. Every day that passes deprives the public of information guaranteed by state law and actively misleads voters as to the source of funding behind FLF's political communications.

This is not the only violation of FLF's required paid for by disclaimer. Doubling down, FLF failed to include the disclaimer that the "majority of contributions to [FLF] came from outside the State of Alaska," which AS 15.13.090 requires for an "outside-funded entity."¹³ GOPAC resides in Arlington, Virginia as stated in its Statement of Contributions. The RSLC resides in Washington, D.C. These two PACs comprise the majority of FLF's funding, which makes FLF an outside-funded entity. But, voters do not know that because it is omitted from FLF's communications supporting David Nelson.

The complete disregard of the reporting and communication requirements for the GOPAC Contribution calls into question whether FLF's other conduct is state law compliant. Exhibit 8 is just one mailer that FLF has distributed with the funds received from GOPAC. APOC must take action to remediate FLF’s noncompliant conduct and ensure that accurate paid for by statements are present on all FLF communications.

¹² <https://aws.state.ak.us/apocreports/Paper/Download.aspx?ID=15979>

¹³ AS 15.13.400(15).

E. FLF failed to properly report its third largest contribution from Arctic E&P Advisors, a sole proprietor.

The Arctic E&P Advisors contribution does not comply with APOC regulations.¹⁴ Arctic E&P Advisors appears to be a sole proprietorship organized by Randy Ruedrich, who also serves as the Treasurer for FLF. A contribution from a sole proprietorship is not prohibited, but it must be reported in the name of the owner of the sole proprietorship.¹⁵ FLF’s reporting names “Randolph Ruedrich” as the owner of the business, but does not name Mr. Ruedrich as the contributor.¹⁶ Furthermore, Arctic E&P Advisors has not had an active business license since 2019. See Exhibit 6;7. This combination of evidence—that Mr. Ruedrich is an officer of FLF who used an inactive sole proprietorship to contribute the third largest donation to FLF this election, which FLF failed to report as APOC regulations require—suggests an attempt to muddy the waters and confuse the public.

CONCLUSION & RELIEF REQUESTED

FLF has spent $237,000 this election cycle, almost all of which it raised from the three contributors at issue here: GOPAC, RSLC, and Arctic E&P Advisors. That the majority of FLF’s funds come from contributions with significant reporting violations creates an unfair advantage and imperils the public’s right to know who and how much money is influencing Alaska state elections. APOC must take prompt action to remediate these violations or clarify how FLF's conduct is lawful so that all regulated parties understand the permissible state of play.

Therefore, the 907 Initiative requests the following relief:

1. That APOC's administrative order in response to this complaint clarify the information that both the recipient of a contribution and the contributor must report to comply with AS 15.13.¹⁷
2. An order that remediates and ceases any violations of AS 15.13 that has occurred.
3. Civil penalties as are appropriate under AS 15.13.390(a).

How to Fix It

The address may be misspelled or may not exist. Try one or more of the following:

- Send the message again following these steps: In Outlook, open this non-delivery report (NDR) and choose Send Again from the Report ribbon. In Outlook on the web, select this NDR, then select the link "To send this message again, click here." Then delete and retype the entire recipient address. If prompted with an Auto-Complete List suggestion don't select it. After typing the complete address, click Send.
- Contact the recipient (by phone, for example) to check that the address exists and is correct.
- The recipient may have set up email forwarding to an incorrect address. Ask them to check that any forwarding they've set up is working correctly.
- Clear the recipient Auto-Complete List in Outlook or Outlook on the web by following the steps in this article: Fix email delivery issues for error code 5.1.1 in Office 365, and then send the message again. Retype the entire recipient address before selecting Send.

If the problem continues, forward this message to your email admin. If you're an email admin, refer to the More Info for Email Admins section below.

More Info for Email Admins

Status code: 550 5.1.1

This error occurs because the sender sent a message to an email address outside of Office 365, but the address is incorrect or doesn't exist at the destination domain. The error is reported by the recipient domain's email server, but most often it must be fixed by the person who sent the message. If the steps in the How to Fix It section above don't fix the problem, and you're the email admin for the recipient, try one or more of the following:

The email address exists and is correct - Confirm that the recipient address exists, is correct, and is accepting messages.

Synchronize your directories - If you have a hybrid environment and are using directory synchronization make sure the recipient's email address is synced correctly in both Office 365 and in your on-premises directory.

Errant forwarding rule - Check for forwarding rules that aren't behaving as expected. Forwarding can be set up by an admin via mail flow rules or mailbox forwarding address settings, or by the recipient via the Inbox Rules feature.

Mail flow settings and MX records are not correct - Misconfigured mail flow or MX record settings can cause this error. Check your Office 365 mail flow settings to make sure your domain and any mail flow connectors are set up correctly. Also, work with your domain registrar to make sure the MX records for your domain are configured correctly.
