The safety of the public and our front-line workers is our number one priority. With that in mind, the Alaska DMV is streamlining its services to focus our staff on transactions that must be done in person.

How do I renew my Alaska Driver’s License or ID Card?
Your transaction can be processed online by visiting: https://online.dmv.alaska.gov/DMVMailInRenewal/index.aspx

How do I know if I am eligible to renew online?
- You must be within one year of expiration on your current card and you cannot have renewed online the last time you renewed.
- You must be between 21 and 68 to renew your DL online.
- If you are currently under 21 and you have taken the Alcohol Awareness Test you may renew online.

How do I apply for a lost Driver’s License or Identification card?
Your transaction can be processed online by visiting: https://online.dmv.alaska.gov/DMVDuplicateDLID/index.aspx

How do I apply for an original Alaska Driver’s License or Identification Card?
First time issuance of an Alaska DL or ID card must be done in person. A general knowledge test is required for an out of state driver’s license transfer.
- Schedule an appointment with your local DMV office by contacting our dedicated call center 907-269-5551.
- Documents required: Standard Non-Compliant (subject to but not limited to)
  - Proof of Identity and Lawful status.
    - Original U.S Birth Certificate or Valid Passport.
  - Full social security number recorded on form 478
  - Proof of Name Change (if applicable)
    - Original Marriage Certificate, or Court Order Name Change.
  - 1 Documents Verifying Alaska Residency

The original issuance of a REAL ID driver’s license or identification card must be done in person. Please take a moment to review the documents required for REAL ID at: http://doa.alaska.gov/dmv/akol/index.htm then call our call center at (907) 269-5551 to make your appointment

How can I apply for a driving record?
Your transaction can be processed online by visiting: https://online.dmv.alaska.gov/onlinedrivingrecords

What if I need to update my address on my driver’s license?
Your transaction can be processed online by visiting: https://online.dmv.alaska.gov/dladdressupdate/index.aspx
*If you would like a new card printed with your correct address you must apply for a duplicate online. You should wait at least 3-5 business days before applying for a duplicate after updating your address.

When am I required to visit a DMV location to renew my license or identification card?
- Name change- Certified proof of name change is required.
- Visiting or Resident Non-U.S. Citizens (verification of immigration documents is required)
- An individual who has become a U.S. Citizen since the last card was issued (Proof of U.S. Citizenship is required)
- If you have a cancelled, revoked, suspended or disqualified license. If you are unsure of the current status of your License you can purchase a driving record online at: https://online.dmv.alaska.gov/onlinedrivingrecords
- CDL- Proof of U.S. Citizenship or lawful status/Adding or removing an endorsement or restriction.
- Knowledge test required to add an endorsement.

How do I apply for an instruction permit?
- A written knowledge test is required to obtain an instruction permit.
- Schedule an appointment with your local DMV office by contacting our call center at 907-269-5551 (Second appointment is required for processing your instruction permit.)
- First time issuance of an Alaska credential requires proof of identity/lawful status, social security number and proof of residency address. If you would like a complete list of acceptable documents, please refer to our check list provided on our website.

Commercial Drivers
If your Hazardous Materials Endorsement expired between March 1, 2020 and October 29, 2020, an extension will be granted for 180 days from your HME expiration date.

If your CDL is current, you may submit your Medical Examiner’s Certificate by the following methods:
- Scan and email to doa.dmv.cdl@alaska.gov
- Mail to Driver Services
  3901 Old Seward Highway. Suite 101
  Anchorage, AK 99503
Your medical card should be accompanied by form 413 Commercial Driver Medical & Self Certifying Verification: http://doa.alaska.gov/dmv/forms/pdfs/413.pdf
- If your status changes from Non-Excepted Interstate to Non-Excepted intrastate this required a restriction on your license and must be done in person.
- If your status changes from Excepted Interstate to Excepted Intrastate this requires a restriction on your license and must be done in person.