

Denali Awards Ceremony

The first annual Governor's Peak Performance Denali Awards ceremonies have been scheduled in conjunction with National State Employee Recognition Week.

There will be two ceremonies linked by videoconference—one in Juneau and one in Anchorage—to present the Governor's Peak Performance Awards to recipients and to recognize the honorable mentions in each category. The ceremonies will be held on May 9 from 3 pm to 4 pm.

Juneau: Commissioner of Administration Conference Room, 10th Floor, State Office Building, Governor Sarah Palin will offer comments and present awards

Anchorage: Grace Alaska (ChangePoint), Denali Room, 6689 Seafood Drive, Commissioner of Administration Annette Kreitzer and Division of Labor Relations and Personnel Director Dianne Kiesel will offer comments and present awards. Click Anchorage for the location map.

In addition, each nominee whose completed and approved nomination form was received prior to the deadline will receive a certificate of appreciation and a lapel pin that will be presented to them by the nominee's department at a date to be determined by the department.
