

STATE OF ALASKA

Equal Employment Opportunity Survey

Completing this questionnaire is optional; if you do not provide this information, no adverse action will result. The federal government requires the State of Alaska to collect this information. The State reports aggregate data biennially to the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. Data is used for statistical and EEO reporting purposes. The information may be subject to disclosure under federal or state law or regulation. If you choose not to self-identify your sex/race/ethnicity, the federal government requires the employer to determine this information by visual survey and/or other available information.

Anti-Discrimination Notice: It is an unlawful employment practice for an employer to refuse to hire or dismiss any individual, or otherwise discriminate against an individual with respect to the individual's terms and conditions of employment, because of an individual's race, sex, color, religion, national origin, disability, age, marital status, changes in marital status, pregnancy, or parenthood.
